Mayor Barrett released the following statement on the ninth anniversary of September 11th:

“On the ninth anniversary of the terrorist attack on September 11, 2001, it is important that we remember those who tragically lost their lives in the attacks as well as their families. It’s with profound respect that we pay tribute to the civilians who lost their lives, as well as the many brave fire fighters, police officers and public safety officials who responded to the events of that day and the dark days that followed. I encourage all residents to take a moment during their everyday activities to honor their memories. They will not be forgotten.”

“Today is also an appropriate time to recognize the dedicated efforts of the men and women serving in the military at home and abroad who on a daily basis risk their lives to protect our freedoms.”
